

Sales and Marketing Internship Position

The Company

AudibleEye LLC is a start-up company that provides an indoor navigation smartphone application for individuals who are blind or visually impaired. The app works with Bluetooth 4.0 beacons to provide the users approximate location within a building along with valuable information about the user's surroundings. Our goal is to provide accessibility and indoor navigation to the community of blind and visually impaired individuals internationally.

Job Description

AudibleEye is looking to grow by onboarding an intern that will play a key role in the company's sales and marketing. This position is meant for someone with an entrepreneurial spirit and the ability to travel for various events to promote our brand. As the Sales and Marketing Intern, you will have the opportunity to gain valuable experience as a frontline representative as well as completing planning and operations responsibilities.

Requirements

- Enrolled student pursuing Bachelor's degree in Business or Technology
- Willingness to travel (U.S. and Canada) and represent AudibleEye at trade shows and various conferences.
- Entrepreneurial mindset... willing to work with a start-up company and realizes the ability to grow with us.
- Tech savvy- Because our company utilizes the capabilities of Bluetooth beacons as well as other revolutionary technology, applicants must have a basic understanding of technology and the willingness to learn about this technology.
- Marketing and Sales experience
 - Previous experience with marketing and sales position not required but must be an out of the box thinker that is focused on growing our company.
 - Ability to analyze and improve social media presence. Familiar with Mailchimp, Hootsuite, Google Analytics and Weebly.
- Remote working capabilities (Personal Computer, Internet connection, Cell phone)

Compensation

This position is primarily unpaid. Reimbursement for qualified expenses incurred. Ability for commission on sales acquired during duration of internship and hourly pay during event travel provided. Performance based letter of recommendation will be provided upon completion.

Submit resume to: jerrodwitt@audibleeye.com

T: (419)356-2948

<http://www.audibleeye.com/opportunities.html>